Budgetary Units Required to Submit Organizational Structure Plans Prior to Budget Approval

December 04, 2016

Administrative Office of the President hosted a coordinating meeting seated by representatives of the government institutions. The meeting was held to pursue implementation of the president's order on simultaneous completion of organizational structure plans of the independent budgetary units with the approval of National Budget of 1396 by the National Assembly .

Based on President Ghani's order, all ministries and independent budgetary units are obliged to complete the final organizational structures related to their offices at the same time with the approval of the national budget by the National Assembly so that they wouldn't face organizational problems during the 1396 fiscal year (2017 .(

The Independent Administrative Reforms and Civil Service Commission is obligated to cooperate with process of organizational structure plan with institutions and submit them to AOP for approval.

Abdul Subhan Rauf, the deputy of Monitoring, Evaluation and Audit of AOP, said that the institutions need to share their organizational structure plans with IARCSC till December 21, 2016; and the commission, after assessing the plans, will submit them to Administrative Office of the President .

Referring to the problems in organizational structures of government offices, Mr. Rauf said that the National Unity Government decided to solve the problems related to organizational structures on a timely manner .

He added that the ministries and independent budgetary institutions that are not able to meet the deadline to submit their organizational structure plans, are obliged to be accountable to the president .

Later, Director General of Civil Service Administration Mr. Ahmad MasoudTokhi said that our top priority is to solve the organizational structure issue at the same time with approval of the national budget by National Assembly .

Mr. Tokhi said that the mass unemployment should be prevented and the organization should be arranged at allowable ceiling.

The participants, welcoming the president's order, expressed their commitment to submit the organizational structure plans to IARCSC on the specified date.
