The First & Only Afghan NGO having Special Consultative Status with the United Nations

Press Release
15 September 2015

ORCD has been approved for accreditation and invited to attend the United Nations Sustainable Development Summit taking place in the UN Head Quarters in New York during 26-27 September, 2015

ORCD, the only Afghan NGO having Special Consultative Status with the UN ECOSOC will be the leading NGO representing Afghan NGO community in this very high profile event.

Dr. Qudratullah Nasrat, Chief Executive of ORCD is expected to represent ORCD in this high-level plenary meeting of the General Assembly in the United Nations in New York. Availing the opportunity, he also plans to advocate for improving the image of true civil societies in Afghanistan at international level.

More than 150 world leaders (Presidents or Prime Ministers) are expected to attend the UN Sustainable Development Summit from September 25-27 at UN headquarters in New York. The aim of the summit is to formally adopt the ambitious new sustainable development agenda. This momentous agenda will serve as the launch pad for action by the international community and by national governments to promote shared prosperity and well-being for all over the next 15 years.

The UN Summit will be held for the adoption of the post-2015 development agenda and is convened as a high-level plenary meeting of the General Assembly (GA).
